

September 7, 1965

Speaking Up . . .

William A. Rusher, popular speaker and debater and publisher of National Review, is available for speaking engagements.

Mr. Rusher earned his LL.B. at Harvard, became a practicing attorney on Wall Street, was appointed Associate Counsel to the U. S. Senate's Internal Security Subcommittee, and is now publisher of National Review. With such a background, William A. Rusher can speak authoritatively on the problems confronting America and the West. He is touring the West Coast late fall.

Dr. Russell Kirk, author of John Randolph of Roanoke and Beyond the Dreams of Avarice, will also be touring the West Coast early January.

Early reservations will reduce costs by enabling us to make advance travel arrangements.

Our other prominent speakers include Frederick D. Wilhelmsen, lecturing on "The Coming Counterrevolution"; "States Rights and the Christian Tradition"; Ralph de Toledano, syndicated columnist and author of The Winning Side; Frank S. Meyer, senior editor of NR and the newly published The African Nettle, and Ernest van den Haag, a practicing psychoanalyst as well as a scholar and writer.